Conference Theme:

Value Engineering: The Game Changer.

Value Engineering (VE/VA/VM) is an internationally practiced methodology to achieve the required Product, Process, Services & System at the minimum possible cost by analyzing their functions & Life cycle cost. Today, VE needs to be imbibed with greater rigor than ever before to meet the current global business need of sustainable development & growth. Asia is the fastest growing economy in the world.

Today we are all working in difficult times globally. Competition is tough as never before. To be able to survive and grow, we need to offer Products to our customers, which are Efficient, Exceptionally high on quality standard and are on Global competitive Price. We have to strive to provide latest technology products at an affordable cost.

Value Engineering is the methodology which provides the solution to this requirement.

Appreciating this Indian Value Engineering Society invites you to participate in the 5th Asian International VE Conference at New Delhi India, wherein experts from the field of Value Engineering will be sharing their success stories and innovative ideas at single platform to enable you to take maximum advantage from this unique opportunity.

ABOUT INVEST

The Indian Value Engineering Society (INVEST), established in October 1977 has been severing Indian professionals for more than three decades, with dissemination of specialized knowledge and helping various industries in improving their profitability through well established and proven techniques of Value Engineering. V.E. is an internationally accepted technique which helps the organization in lowering overall cost, increasing value to the user, improving quality, improving resource efficiency, simplifying procedures, minimizing paper work, lowering staffing costs, increasing procurement efficiency, optimizing construction expenditures and developing value attitudes in staff, all of which help in our competing more successfully in the market place.
